

Kate Kunzman Supervising Attorney

"Kathleen Kunzman has a broad practice, which includes both immigrant and non-immigrant matters for US-based and multinational corporate clients." - Chambers USA Guide to the World's Leading Lawyers

Education:

B.A., University of Washington, Seattle
J.D., Golden Gate University, San Francisco

Rankings:

Chambers USA Guide: "America's Leading Business Lawyers" 2011

Immigration law experience:

Kate handles the range of immigrant and nonimmigrant business immigration matters, including employment visas for professionals, intra-company transferees, investors, and trainees. She garnered her experience initially at the world's largest immigration law firms, including six years as an Immigration Paralegal and Law Clerk while attending law school. In addition, she acquired experience developing and implementing practical business immigration solutions for individual professionals and corporations alike.

Kate was an Editor of the Golden Gate Law Review. She is a member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association. Having lived in France, Germany, Norway, and New Zealand, Kate relishes international travel. She is also an avid runner.

Q. What is your connection with immigration?

A. I became interested in the process of moving people living abroad myself. I also love representing culturally diverse clients.

Q. What is a fun fact about you?

A. I love bike-commuting.